

TWO-MINUTE SILENCE

MONDAY 11th NOVEMBER 2013

The two-minute silence at 11am on the 11th day of the 11th month (Armistice Day) will be observed by the sounding of the Fire Siren. The siren will sound for one minute prior to 11am and will sound again at two minutes past the hour for a further one minute.

The school children will to be at the War Memorial to observe the silence and afterwards will plant crosses into the flowerbeds either side of the Memorial.

Members of the Sark Branch of the Royal British Legion will be in attendance and the Branch Standard will be paraded.

All are welcome to attend the ceremony.
