

MEET YOUR NEW CONSEILLERS DESIGNATE

As only the required number of people offered themselves for election, the sixteen people who will become Conseillers in January, including those who have stood for another term, have been invited by Chief Pleas to be available to talk informally with members of the public at the Island Hall on -

WEDNESDAY 3rd DECEMBER

from 6.00pm until 8.00pm

and

THURSDAY 4th DECEMBER

from 2.00pm until 4.00pm

In addition, the sixteen designated Conseillers have been invited to submit a summary of what they stand for and these will be posted on the government website –

www.gov.sark.gg

on Tuesday 2nd December. Hard copies can also be collected from the Committee Secretary from the same date.
