PRESS RELEASE

Adverse Weather

Dear Sark Residents

As you are probably aware the Channel Islands Meteorological Offices have issued weather warnings for snow today through to Wednesday/Thursday.

As most of you would be either walking or cycling around the island please be aware that, if there is snow in the trees, especially evergreen, these branches will be a lot heavier than normal and may break off in the strong winds.

Please keep up to date with the weather forecast, ask a friend if you need help and keep warm!

Medical & Emergency Services Committee
