SANCTIONS

Bailiwick of Guernsey implements all international sanctions measures.

In Sark this is done by way of legislation (consistent with the rest of the Bailiwick) and also by way of individual Ordinances made by the Chief Pleas of Sark which operate independently of, but in effect mirror, corresponding Ordinances for Guernsey and Alderney. In the case of most sanctions that impose import and export restrictions, the competent authority throughout the Bailiwick is the States of Guernsey Home Department.

For financial sanctions, the competent authority throughout the Bailiwick is the States of Guernsey Policy Council except for a small number of cases where the competent authority is HM Procureur. Any queries on financial sanctions should be directed to the Policy Council in the first instance.

Contact details and further information about sanctions is available on the States of Guernsey website at <http://www.gov.gg/sanctions>. Note that this website provides links to Guernsey Ordinances which do not apply to Sark. The corresponding Ordinances for Sark are available at <http://www.guernseylegalresources.gg/article/93297/Sanctions>.
