Sale and Supply of Tobacco and Tobacco Products

This is an invitation to voice your opinion

As approved by Chief Pleas at Midsummer 2014, legislation will be made under the provisions of the Reform (Sark) Law, 2008; copies of the Sale and Supply of Tobacco Products Ordinance (Sark) Ordinance, 2014 can be viewed online at www.gov.sark.gg (after 28th October) or a copy of the draft Ordinance is available from the Committee Secretary at the addresses above.

Sark's legislation at this time allows a young person age 16 to buy tobacco products. The Committee feels this should be brought into line with the UK and other jurisdictions in the Bailiwick and be raised to 18 years of age.

Your comments on this particular issue would be much appreciated.

If you would like to make any comments on the proposed legislation please write or email the committee secretary at the addresses shown above by –

Part I of the Ordinance –

- prohibits the sale or supply of tobacco products to persons under the age of 16 years;
- it is a defence for the defendant to prove that he or she had taken reasonable steps to establish the age of the person to whom the tobacco products were sold or supplied.
This new prohibition would continue the prohibition currently contained in the Sale and Supply of Tobacco Products (Sark) Ordinance, 2011.

Part II of the Ordinance –

- sets out a licensing regime for the sale of tobacco products, which would be administered by the Court of the Seneschal;
- defines the licence required for the sale of tobacco products and fees for applications are set out in Schedule 1;
- identifies the fee for an application for a retail licence or indirect sales licence as £40 for each premises;
- identifies the fee for an application for a wholesale licence as £150 for each premises;
- specifies the grounds for refusing, suspending, revoking or varying a licence;
- sets out the duties of licensees and responsible persons (those who are to manage the conduct of corporate licences).

General conditions of licences are set out in Schedule 2.

Appeals against licensing decisions may be made to the Royal Court of Guernsey.

Part III of the Ordinance –

- sets out miscellaneous and general provisions;
- creates offences relating to obstruction and the provision of false, deceptive or misleading information;
- requires information acquired under the Ordinance to be kept confidential, subject to a few exceptions;
- provides for a maximum penalty of a Level 4 fine (currently £5,000), or imprisonment for up to one month, upon summary conviction for an offence under the Ordinance.
- repeals the Sale and Supply of Tobacco Products (Sark) Ordinance, 2011.
- includes transitional provisions for businesses selling tobacco products before the new licensing regime for tobacco products comes into force;
- gives existing retailers two months to make a licence application, during which time they are deemed to hold a licence, until such time as their application is granted or finally refused, taking into account the possibility of appeal;
- exempts cruise vessels, passenger vessels sheltering in an emergency and vessels not carrying passengers for reward, from the provisions of this Ordinance.

"Tobacco product" is defined to mean tobacco or products containing tobacco, smoking mixtures intended as a substitute for tobacco, and cigarette paper.
