

Her Royal Highness The Princess Royal as Master, The Corporation of Trinity House will be visiting Sark on Wednesday 18 July

Visit programme

HRH will arrive shortly after 1300 at the Millennium Field, by Trinity House helicopter and will be welcomed by the Seigneur and family.

Kerys Knight (last duty as Sark Princess) will present a posy of local flowers from La Seigneurie Gardens.

HRH and party will travel to La Valette by carriage, via the Church and Avenue

The Seigneur will present HRH to: Arthur Rolfe as Speaker of Chief Pleas, Jeremy La Trobe-Bateman as Seneschal and his wife Sarah, and Paul Burgess as Constable

Captain McNaught (Trinity House) will escort HRH to view the refurbishment of Point Robert Lighthouse

Captain McNaught will present: Sam Higham as the current Lighthouse Attendant,

Trevor Kendal as the former Lighthouse Attendant,

Jane Norwich as the Sark Government Project Manager for the refurbishment work

HRH will return to the top of the Lighthouse steps where the Seigneur will present:

Sark Watch with Katie Knight and Georgia Bateson accompanied by Sarah Cottle,

Sark Community Blooms with Paul and Sue Williams, Caroline Langford and Howard Petrie,

Sark Knitters for Tumaini Fund with Suzette Adams and a host of others

A marquee in the field at the top of the Lighthouse steps will be available for anyone wishing to be part of HRH's visit. Tea, cake and other refreshments will be available. There will be a short period of time when HRH will be able to meet members of the public.

The Seigneur will escort HRH back to the Millennium Field where HRH will board the Trinity House helicopter for a visit to Les Casquets

Dress: for those being presented the dress is Day Dress / Blazer and tie, hats not required