SARK SCHOOL – MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGES INSTRUCTOR

We are looking for a qualified and experienced Instructor for Modern Foreign Languages to join the new team in Sark School as soon as possible.

The person we are looking for will be an experienced French teacher and:

- Have high expectations for every child and a passionate commitment to raising standards within a broad, creative curriculum.
- Act with integrity and kindness, staying true to our ethos and values
- Be able to develop and build positive relationships with children, parents and the wider community,

Initially the language to be taught will be French although the ability to support additional foreign languages in the future would be desirable. The role will be for 4 to 5 hours a week, the exact hours to be agreed. The rate of pay will be £10.50 to £12 per hour based on skills and experience.

Please apply by sending an application form together with a covering letter that details how you meet the person specification for the role and why you believe you should be appointed to the role. The closing date for applications is Friday 7th September and you need to be available to start the role immediately.

Application forms and a copy of the person specification are available from the Committee Offices. Applications should be sent to the Committee Office or e-mailed to caroline.robins.cso@gov.sark.gg.

For more information or informally to discuss the role please contact the Head of School Mr Heartford on 01481 832601 or email him on head@school.sark.gg

Sark School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

We will require all successful applicants to undertake an enhanced criminal records check via the Disclosure & Barring Service.
